SPEAKER
REV. JIM HOEKSTRA

Jim is originally from Western Springs, IL. and comes from a strong Christian heritage in the reformed faith. He initially studied Mechanical Engineering Technology and Aviation Maintenance at LeTourneau University, and is a graduate of Westminster Seminary in California. He was ordained in the Orthodox Presbyterian Church in 1988. He met his wife, Bonnie, in San Diego while studying at Westminster and they were married in 1988.

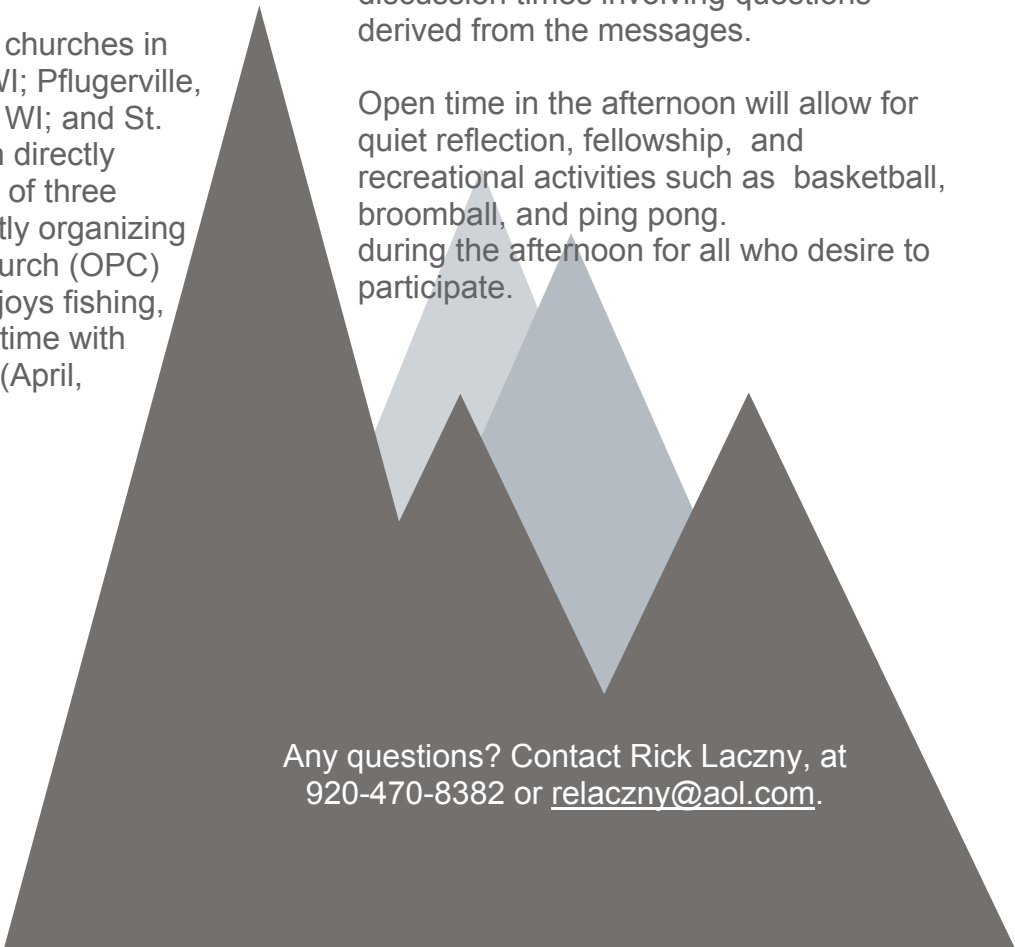

Jim has pastored OPC churches in Ocala, FL; Oostburg, WI; Pflugerville, TX, Menomonee Falls, WI; and St. Paul, MN. He has been directly involved in the planting of three churches and is currently organizing pastor of Immanuel Church (OPC) in Andover, MN. He enjoys fishing, reading, and spending time with his wife and 3 children (April, Laura, and Benjamin).

THE FEAR OF THE LORD: A FOUNDATION OF CHRISTIAN LIVING

Come and join us for a challenging time in God's Word, as well as, opportunities to fellowship with other brothers in Christ from around the Presbytery of the Midwest.

Our speaker, Rev. Jim Hoekstra, will lead us in reflecting on various Scriptures that cover this fundamental subject of the fear of the Lord. He has had a particular interest in this topic through the years and finds it foundational to our walk with the Lord. There will also be small group discussion times involving questions derived from the messages.

Open time in the afternoon will allow for quiet reflection, fellowship, and recreational activities such as basketball, broomball, and ping pong. during the afternoon for all who desire to participate.
